ORDER DENYING PROPER PERSON PETITION
FOR WRIT OF PROHIBITION

This is an original proper person petition for a writ of prohibition challenging interlocutory determinations made by the district court after our June 11, 2001 reversal of a final judgment in Docket No. 29305, and remand of the underlying suit. Petitioner, in addition to other relief, requests that we: (1) review district court case A357614 from June 11, 2001, through January 14, 2002, to determine whether judgment can be granted in her favor; (2) dismiss the alleged code violation 7337 being pursued by the City of North Las Vegas against her; (3) sanction real parties in interest's attorneys for their alleged fraud upon the district court, and other alleged misconduct; (4) investigate to determine why the trial of April 29, 1994, in which petitioner was purportedly found not guilty of a misdemeanor, was not recorded; and (5) determine which one of four opposing counsel contacted Robert Kossack, Attorney-at-Law, in an effort to obtain records purportedly related to his prior representation of petitioner.

This court may issue a writ of prohibition to arrest the proceedings of a district court exercising its judicial functions, when such proceedings are in excess of the jurisdiction of the district court.¹ A petition for a writ of prohibition is addressed to the sound discretion of this court.² Further, such a writ may issue only when there is no plain, speedy, and adequate remedy at law.³

We have considered this petition, and we are not satisfied that this court's intervention by way of extraordinary relief is warranted at this time. Accordingly, we

ORDER the petition DENIED.⁴

⁴See NRAP 21(b); Smith, 107 Nev. 674, 818 P.2d 849.

Although petitioner was not granted leave to file papers in proper person, see NRAP 46(b), we have considered all proper person documents filed or received in this matter, and we conclude that the relief requested therein is not warranted.
