ORDER DISMISSING PETITION FOR WRIT OF MANDAMUS

This proper person petition for a writ of mandamus challenges the district court's refusal to enter a written order denying petitioner's application for in forma pauperis status.¹ After the writ petition was filed with this court, the district court entered a written order denying ¹Although petitioner was not granted leave to file papers in proper person, see NRAP 46(b), we have considered the proper person documents received from him, and deny any relief requested therein as moot in light of this order. In particular, we note that petitioner's arguments concerning the merits of the underlying district court case are not relevant to the limited issue presented by this writ petition, and so will not be addressed here.

petitioner's application, and stating its reasons therefor. This petition is thus now moot, and so we
