No. 39425

ORDER DENYING PETITIONS FOR WRITS OF PROHIBITION

These are original proper person petitions for writs of prohibition apparently challenging a district court's dismissal order and jurisdiction over litigation brought by the real parties in interest. We have considered the petitions, and we are not satisfied that this court's intervention by way of extraordinary relief is warranted.¹ Accordingly, we deny the petitions.²

It is so ORDERED.

²NRAP 21(b). Petitioner's failure to pay the filing fees for these petitions constitutes an independent basis on which to deny relief. NRAP 21(e). Although petitioner was not granted leave to file papers in proper person, see NRAP 46(b), we have considered the proper person documents received from petitioner.
