

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF THE STATE OF NEVADA

DARRYL LLOYD WHITE,
Appellant,
vs.
THE STATE OF NEVADA,
Respondent.

No. 40202

FILED

OCT 15 2002

ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL

JANETTE M. BLOOM
CLERK OF SUPREME COURT
BY J. Richard
CHIEF DEPUTY CLERK

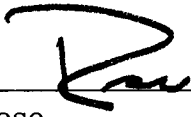

Appellant purports to appeal in proper person from an alleged decision of the district court denying appellant's motion for reconsideration, motion to proceed in forma pauperis, motion for production of documents at state expense, and post-conviction petition for a writ of habeas corpus. Our review of this appeal reveals several jurisdictional defects.

To the extent that appellant attempts to appeal from the denial of his motion for reconsideration, motion to proceed in forma pauperis, and motion for production of documents at state expense, this court lacks jurisdiction to consider the appeal. No statute or court rule provides for an appeal from an order of the district court denying a motion for reconsideration, a motion to proceed in forma pauperis, and a motion for production of documents at state expense.<sup>1</sup> To the extent that appellant attempts to appeal the alleged denial of his post-conviction petition for a writ of habeas corpus, appellant's notice of appeal is premature. The district court had not made a decision, oral or written, on appellant's petition at the time he filed his notice of appeal. Accordingly,

we conclude that appellant's notice of appeal was premature, and we dismiss this appeal without prejudice to appellant's right to appeal from a final, written order of the district court denying his petition. Accordingly, we conclude that we lack jurisdiction to consider this appeal, and we

ORDER this appeal DISMISSED.<sup>2</sup>
