ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL

This is an appeal from a district court order denying reconsideration. When our preliminary review of the docketing statement and the documents submitted to this court pursuant to NRAP 3(e) revealed a potential jurisdictional defect, we directed appellant to show cause why this appeal should not be dismissed. Specifically, it appeared that the judgment or order designated in the notice of appeal was not substantively appealable,<sup>1</sup> as no appeal may be taken from an order denying reconsideration.<sup>2</sup> In addition, it appeared that the notice of appeal was untimely as to the May 2, 2002 order denying appellant's motion to correct or clarify the settlement, because it appeared that it was filed more than thirty days after written notice of the order's entry was served.<sup>3</sup> Appellant's response was due on April 5, 2003; no response has been received.

We conclude that we lack jurisdiction over this appeal, and accordingly, we

ORDER this appeal DISMISSED.
