ORDER DISMISSING APPEALS

These are proper person appeals from decisions of the district court denying appellant's: (1) motion for legal materials (Docket No. 40887); (2) motion to amend order (Docket No. 40888); (3) motion for NRCP (Docket No. 40889); (4) motion to dismiss criminal complaint (Docket No. 40890); (5) motion to implement order (Docket No. 40891); and (6) motion to dismiss Brady¹ violation, motion to impose sanctions, request for appointment of paralegal, memorandum, motion for judgment as a matter of law, three additional motions to dismiss, motion for financial reimbursement, motion for legal books and request for polygraph (Docket No. 40937). We elect to consolidate these appeals for disposition.²

Our review of these appeals reveals jurisdictional defects. The right to appeal is statutory; where no statute or court rule provides for an
