ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL

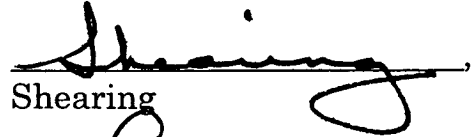

The settlement judge has filed a status report indicating that the parties were unable to agree to a settlement of this appeal. Accordingly, the settlement process is complete.

This is an appeal from a district court order denying reconsideration of dismissal for failure to timely post an out-of-state cost bond. On June 25, 2003, respondents filed a motion to dismiss this appeal for lack of jurisdiction. To date, appellants have not opposed the motion. In support of the motion, respondents contend that “[n]o statute or court rule provides for an appeal from a post-judgment order denying a motion for reconsideration or hearing” and further that this court “has consistently held that such an order is not appealable.”

This court has jurisdiction to consider an appeal only when the appeal is authorized by statute or court rule. See Taylor Constr. V. Hilton Hotels, 100 Nev. 207, 678 P.2d 1152 (1984). No appeal is permitted from an order denying reconsideration. See Alvis v. State, Gaming Control Bd.,

99 Nev. 184, 660 P.2d 980 (1983). Accordingly, as we lack jurisdiction, we grant respondents' motion to dismiss and we dismiss this appeal.

It is so ORDERED.
