No. 41271

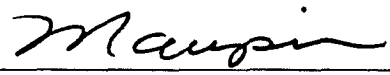

ORDER DENYING PETITIONS FOR WRITS OF MANDAMUS, PROHIBITION, AND "DECLARATORY JUDGMENT"

These are original proper person petitions for (1) writs of mandamus and prohibition challenging a justice's court's dismissal of petitioner's small claims case; and (2) "extraordinary relief by declaratory judgment," voiding Nevada's prisoner employment statute. We have considered the petitions, and we are not satisfied that this court's intervention by way of extraordinary relief is warranted.<sup>1</sup> Accordingly, we deny the petitions.<sup>2</sup>

It is so ORDERED.

<sup>1</sup>NRS 34.170 (providing that a writ of mandamus is not available if there is a plain, speedy and adequate legal remedy); NRS 34.330 (providing that a writ of prohibition is not available if there is a plain, speedy and adequate legal remedy); NRAP 21(a) (requiring that a writ petition contain facts necessary to an understanding of the issues and copies of any orders or parts of the record essential to an understanding of the issues); NRS 30.030 (limiting declaratory judgment actions to courts of record); Smith v. District Court, 107 Nev. 674, 818 P.2d 849 (1991) (stating that the issuance of extraordinary relief is purely discretionary with this court).

<sup>2</sup>NRAP 21(b). Petitioner's failure to pay the filing fees for these petitions or demonstrate good cause for waiving the fees constitutes an independent basis on which to deny relief. NRAP 21(e). Although petitioner was not granted leave to file papers in proper person, see NRAP 46(b), we have considered the proper person documents received from petitioner.
