ORDER OF AFFIRMANCE

JANETTE M. BLOOM
CLERK OF SUPREME COURT
BY J. Richards
CHIEF DEPUTY CLERK

This is a proper person appeal from an order of the district court denying a petition for a writ of mandamus. Eighth Judicial District Court, Clark County; Lee A. Gates, Judge.

On March 31, 2003, appellant filed a proper person petition for a writ of mandamus in the district court. On June 16, 2003, the district court denied the petition. This appeal followed.

In his petition, appellant argued that the Division of Parole and Probation refused or failed to process his parole release or respond to requests regarding his parole release. He further argued that his parole release was delayed because of his disability and the lack of wheelchair accessible halfway homes. Petitioner seeks damages and other relief based on the Division's failure to process his parole release plan. Based upon our review of the record on appeal, we conclude that the district court did not abuse its discretion in denying appellant's petition for a writ of mandamus.<sup>1</sup>

Having reviewed the record on appeal and for the reasons set forth above, we conclude that appellant is not entitled to relief and that briefing and oral argument are unwarranted.<sup>2</sup> Accordingly, we

ORDER the judgment of the district court AFFIRMED.
