ORDER OF AFFIRMANCE

JANETTE M. BLOOM
CLERK OF SUPREME COURT
BY J. Ruben
CHIEF DEPUTY CLERK

This is a proper person appeal from an order granting summary judgment in a contract action. Second Judicial District Court, Washoe County; Connie J. Steinheimer, Judge.

Summary judgment is appropriate when there are no genuine issues of material fact and the moving party is entitled to judgment as a matter of law.¹ This court reviews an order granting summary judgment de novo,² and construes the pleadings in the light most favorable to the non-moving party.³ To successfully oppose a summary judgment motion, however, the non-moving party must show specific facts, not general allegations and conclusions, presenting a genuine issue of material fact for trial.⁴

Having reviewed the record, we conclude that the district court properly granted summary judgment in favor of respondent.

¹NRCP 56(c).

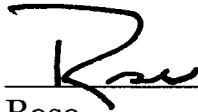

²See Bulbman, Inc. v. Nevada Bell, 108 Nev. 105, 110, 825 P.2d 588, 591 (1992).

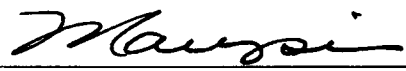

³See La Mantia v. Redisi, 118 Nev. 27, 29, 38 P.3d 877, 879 (2002).

⁴See id.

Respondent provided documentation in support of its allegation that appellant defaulted under the automobile loan, and appellant failed to present specific facts creating a genuine issue of fact as to whether she defaulted. Accordingly, we affirm the district court's order.

It is so ORDERED.
