

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF THE STATE OF NEVADA

SALVATORE PULLARA,
Appellant,
vs.
MICHAEL V. CRISTALLI,
LTD.,
Respondent.

No. 42590

FILED

AUG 26 2005

JANETTE M. BLOOM
CLERK OF SUPREME COURT
BY DEPUTY CLERK

ORDER OF AFFIRMANCE

This is a proper person appeal from a district court order granting summary judgment against appellant in an interpleader action. Eighth Judicial District Court, Clark County; Michael A. Cherry, Judge.

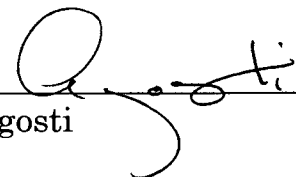

Having reviewed the record and appellant's opening brief, it does not appear that the district court erred in granting summary judgment against appellant in the underlying interpleader action.<sup>1</sup>

Accordingly, we affirm the district court's order.

It is so ORDERED.<sup>2</sup>

_____, V.C.J.
Rose

_____, Sr. J.
Shearing

_____, Sr. J.
Agosti

---

<sup>1</sup>Pegasus v. Reno Newspapers, Inc., 118 Nev. 706, 713, 57 P.3d 82, 87 (2002) (noting that this court reviews a district court order granting summary judgment de novo).

<sup>2</sup>As no additional briefing of this appeal is necessary, we vacate our April 13, 2004 order, to the extent that it directs the filing of an answering brief and a reply brief. Additionally, in light of this order, we deny as moot all motions that remain pending in this appeal.

The Honorable Miriam Shearing, Senior Justice, and the Honorable Deborah A. Agosti, Senior Justice, participated in the decision of this matter under a general order of assignment entered on July 14, 2005.

cc: Hon. Michael A. Cherry, District Judge
Salvatore Pullara
Michael V. Cristalli
Potter Law Offices
Clark County Clerk