

Alex,

After our phone call early today, I have this post from Dan Gilliam to add to your website – ournevadajudges.com

Please acknowledge receipt of this email.

Here it is:

It is very disheartening to see one of my opponents making erroneous statements about my conduct and candidacy. I have been ethical in every aspect of my campaign to be a District Court Judge. I have not violated any law whatsoever.

Our community needs people serving on the judiciary who have respect for the truth, comply with high ethical standards, and present their credentials in a dignified manner. Throughout this process I have been truthful, ethical and dignified. I will not stoop to my opponent's method of campaigning, because I have so much respect for the integrity and sanctity of our judicial system.

Thank you,

Dave
