Good afternoon –

On behalf of the Western States Regional Council, I am pleased to inform you that you have received our official endorsement in the upcoming election. This endorsement reflects our confidence in your leadership and your commitment to advancing the priorities important to our communities and membership.

Attached you will find a letter from our EST, Favian Guillen. Please take a moment to review it at your convenience. We have also included our official council seal for your use in campaign materials.

Congratulations once again, and we look forward to supporting your campaign and working with you.
